A Message From Steve Springer

"I didn't start in high-school. Got cut in college.

Played in the Big Leagues.

Here's the thing: No one knows how far you're going to get in this game except God and that's it.

With over 30+ years in professional ball, I've learned a thing or two about what makes hitters underachieve and what makes hitters become great competitors. Here's my advice: Learn the mental side of hitting."
